Join Us for District VIII Family Day/KJT Meet & Eat

KJT members and your family are invited to this joint event on Sunday November 9th, at the Frenstat Recreation Center. Dinner is hosted by the KJT Home Office in appreciation for your membership. Guests are welcome, so please bring a friend so we can tell them all about KJT!

Registration begins at 11:30AM, with a catered meal served at noon. There will be a short presentation by the KJT President and Vice President. Seating is limited, so please RSVP by Thursday October 23rd by emailing info@kjt.net or calling the KJT Home Office at 979-968-5877.

HOLY SOULS

PRAY for US
as we PRAY for YOU!

REFLECTION FOR ALL SOULS DAY FROM THE CATHOLIC ANSWERS : We can't hear or see our departed brothers and sisters when we talk to them. We can't give them a hug. But we can pray for them and will what's good for them—namely, the removal of any impediments to entrance into heaven.

The relationship might not be the same. But it is a relationship nevertheless! One rationale for this is that the souls in purgatory are perfected in charity. Since charity involves not only love of God, but also love of neighbor, and love of neighbor is expressed in intercessory prayer, it seems reasonable to conclude that the souls in purgatory would express their love by interceding for us.

That our loved ones in purgatory are praying for us is a consoling thought. Their prayer for us, and our private request for their prayers, is one way by which we keep a relationship with them.

It's good news to know we have friends who can't waver in charity and are constantly praying for us. For St. James says, "The prayer of a righteous man has great power in its effects" (James 5:16).

The consolation we can provide the holy souls in purgatory in turn brings us consolation. St. Thomas Aquinas teaches that love is "to wish good to someone," "just as he wills good to himself."

It follows from this definition of love that the good the souls in purgatory experience by having their impediments to heaven removed is experienced as our own good. That means that their consolation is our consolation; their source of joy is our source of joy. As the late Frank Sheed writes, "there is a special joy for the Catholic in praying for his dead, if only the feeling that there is still something he can do for people he loved upon earth. <https://www.catholic.com/magazine/online-edition/keeping-up-with-loved-ones-in-purgatory>

ALL SOULS DAY INDULGENCIES: Indulgencies for Visiting a Cemetery: Visiting a Cemetery: An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. Typically the indulgence is plenary each day from November 1-8; on other days of the year, it is only a partial indulgence.

Visiting a Church on November 2: A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who on the day dedicated to the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed [November 2 {as well as on the Sunday preceding or following, and on All Saints' Day}] piously visit a church. In visiting the church it is required that one Our Father and the Creed be recited.

Indulgence Requirements: To acquire a plenary indulgence it is necessary also to fulfill the following three conditions: sacramental Confession, Eucharistic communion, and prayer for the intention of the Holy Father while being detached from sin.

The Altar Rosary Society will have their annual Mass for all the living/deceased members on Tuesday, November 11th at 2:30 pm in the chapel. All members and anyone who would like to join the Society are urged to attend.

Thank you to all who have given to the Catholic Services Appeal already!

We are united by God into one community – the Diocese of Austin. As one, we share faith, fellowship, and life. We also share the responsibility for the stewardship of our diocese. If you haven't donated to the CSA yet, there is still time to make your gift, no matter how large or small. I invite you to prayerfully consider joining your brothers and sisters in being a miracle to others most in need. Many lives have been changed because of you for the better. You can complete and return your pledge card to the collection basket or make a secure gift online at austindiocese.org/give.

This Week's Message:

"All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.
"The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned."

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1030-1031)
