We are in need of Auction items for the Grand Auction!! If you intend to donate an item, let us know what it is, even if you haven’t purchased it yet—contact Crystal to let her know, in order for your item to be on the numbered “List of auction items”. If you do not know what to purchase consider making a donation and we will purchase an item.

We need cards for "Target the Card" in denominations of $10 and up,

FROM THE TEACHING OF THE HOLY FATHER POPE LEO XIV:

“We cannot cheat death.” As his summer holidays continue in Castel Gandolfo, Pope Leo XIV joined pilgrims who came out to the hilltop town near Rome in praying the traditional Marian prayer of the Angelus.

In his address to those gathered in Freedom Square, the Pope reflected on the question put to Jesus in the Gospel: “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

The Holy Father recognized that the man’s question expresses a deep desire of the human heart, which is “for an existence free from failure, evil, and death.”

He noted that we can never gain eternal life by force or negotiate to obtain it, but rather we must inherit it.“Eternal life, which God alone can give, is bestowed on us as an inheritance, as parents do with their children,” he said. For this reason, said Pope Leo, Jesus says we must do God’s will, which means loving God with all our heart and our neighbor as ourself.

“When we do these two things, we respond to the Father’s love,” he said. “God’s will is the law of life that the Father Himself was the first to follow, by loving us unconditionally in His Son, Jesus.” The Pope urged Christians to look to Jesus for the meaning of authentic love, saying that love is generous, forgiving, and expansive, never leaving us closed in on ourselves.

Just as God drew near to humanity in Jesus Christ, so too are we called to care for those around us.

“Imitating the example of Jesus, the Savior of the world,” he said, “we too are called to bring consolation and hope, above all to those who are experiencing discouragement and disappointment.”

Pope Leo XIV concluded his Angelus reflection by recalling that the supreme commandment to love God and our neighbor supercedes all human laws and gives them their true meaning.

“In order to live eternally, we do not need to cheat death, but to serve life, by caring for others in this, our time together.”

In seeking to serve life, said the Pope, we become “artisans of peace in our daily lives.”

This Week's Message:

"Fortitude is the moral virtue that ensures firmness in difficulties and constancy in the pursuit of the good. It strengthens the resolve to resist temptations and to overcome obstacles in the moral life. The virtue of fortitude enables one to conquer fear, even fear of death, and to face trials and persecutions. It disposes one even to renounce and sacrifice his life in defense of a just cause. 'The Lord is my strength and my song'. 'In the world you have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.'"

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1808)
