The Church is precious; it was created by God on the cross, when they pierced Christ’s heart with the lance. The Church was created to be part of God! The Church is holy. The Church is something precious, mystical, beautiful... and beyond all understanding...

The human Church, the people of God—of course, they will make mistakes. But notwithstanding its human sinfulness, out of this community of love comes something fantastic, transparent, beautiful, beyond our kenning, whose head is indeed the Son of God, and whose Bride she is. She encompasses us all, such as we are.

The Church is holy [because Christ is its] essence...Touch the Church, and you touch God... Where Jesus Christ is, there is the Church. People say, “I believe in Jesus, but not in the Church.” But you cannot separate Jesus and the Church: it’s impossible. Mysteriously, the Church comes from the very heart of the Lord, and is given to us to come close to the heart of the Father....When you begin to love the Church, you begin to enter into its mystery....As you enter, you will enter into the heart of Christ. And he will take you by the hand and bring you to his Father.

FIRST THEY PRAYED THE ROSARY AND THEN THEY ATE THEIR ROSARY....During “America Needs Fatima” activities our young Parishioners were lovingly participating making their catechism classes and church devotions both beautiful and meaningful. (PS: On one picture below you see the rosary made out of donuts. It was delicious...).

SAINT PADRE PIO & POOR SOULS IN PURGATORY.

Padre Pio had a profound devotion to the souls in purgatory and was frequently visited by them seeking his intercession for prayers, especially Masses. He saw praying for the deceased as an act of mercy and a way to help "empty purgatory with our prayers," and his own suffering was partly offered for them. He encouraged others to pray for these souls and taught that this practice not only helps the departed but can also strengthen the connection between the living and the dead. During his devotion to the Poor Souls Padre Pio experienced the following: 1) Frequent visitations: Padre Pio stated that as many souls of the dead came to him for help as there were living people. They would appear to him in a state of suffering, asking for prayers and Masses. 2) Prayer and Mass as a way to help: He once received a soul who explicitly asked for a Mass to be said for his liberation from purgatory. Padre Pio emphasized the spiritual weight of the Mass, which can shorten the time souls spend in purgatory. 3) Offering his own suffering: Early in his priesthood, he felt a strong desire to offer himself to God as a victim for the poor sinners and the souls in purgatory. 4) Encouraging prayers for the deceased: Padre Pio's message was a call to action for the living, urging them to pray for the departed. He famously declared, "We must empty Purgatory with our prayers".

Condolences to Bebe Gurka and Angie Herridge on the passing of their sister Virginia Meschwitz on November 2.

The Altar Rosary Society will have their annual Mass for all the living/deceased members on Tuesday, November 11th at 2:30 pm in the chapel. All members and anyone who would like to join the Society are urged to attend.

There will be a second collection at Masses next weekend, for the U.S. Bishops’ Campaign for Human Development.

This Week's Message:

The Basilica of St. John Lateran is the cathedral of Rome. It was built during Constantine's reign and was consecrated by Pope St. Sylvester I in the year 324. This feast was later made a universal celebration in honor of the basilica called 'the mother and mistress of all churches of Rome and the world' (omnium urbis et orbis ecclesiarum mater et caput) as a sign of love for and union with the See of Peter.
