Membership in St. Stanislaus Catholic Parish in Chappell Hill

Generally, any baptized Catholic living within the boundaries of the Parish is considered a “member” of the Parish, from a pastoral standpoint.

However, an “active, registered and contributing” member of this Parish is considered a baptized Catholic who has been registered here for at least two years, and who regularly attends church services and supports the Parish by their contributions as evidenced through/ from their collection envelopes and other sources.

Active, registered and contributing members of the Parish, as defined above, and their spouses and immediate dependent children under the age of 25, are not charged for the use of the church. Moreover, they may receive reduced rates for their personal events and functions in the Parish Hall.

Please note that an active and registered member may not rent the Parish facilities [e.g. church or parish hall] at the reduced rate for other non-member individuals, or for family reunions, or for parties given by businesses, firms or companies. Nor may a Parish member purchase church cemetery plots for other non-member individuals, at the reduced rate.

Thoughts for Your Meditation

On this Sunday, we continue to read from the “Bread of Life discourse” found in the sixth chapter of John’s Gospel. Recall that we have been reading from this chapter for the past two weeks and will continue to read from it for another two. Last week, the crowd asked for a sign that would show that Jesus came from God. Jesus replied by saying that he is the sign and the bread of life sent by God. At this point, our Lectionary omits six verses in which Jesus predicts the unbelief of the crowd and further develops his connection with God the Father. In these verses, Jesus says that he was sent by God to do the Father’s will. Jesus promises that those who look upon the Son with faith will find eternal life. Some of these themes are repeated in today’s Gospel reading.

Today’s Gospel begins with a report that the Jews complained about Jesus’ claims regarding his identity. They knew his family, and they knew he was the son of Joseph. They could not comprehend what Jesus meant when he said that he came down from heaven. Jesus responds to the complaints by saying that only those who are chosen by God will recognize him as the one that God sent. This is a recurring theme in John’s Gospel, that God has chosen those who will have faith in Jesus.

In the verses that follow, Jesus talks more about his unity with the Father. He is the one who has seen the Father and, therefore, knows the Father. Those who listen to God will recognize that Jesus is the one sent from God. Those who believe will have eternal life. Jesus concludes with the central element of our eucharistic theology. He promises that the bread of life will bring eternal life to those who partake of it, and he tells us that the bread of life will be his own flesh, given for the life of the world.

In today’s reading, we hear Jesus say again, as he did in last week's Gospel, that he is the bread of life. We also hear Jesus add that he is the living bread. Both of these statements help us understand better the gift that Jesus gives us in the Eucharist. We celebrate this gift of Jesus each time we gather for Mass. We believe that receiving Jesus in the Eucharist will lead us to eternal life.

Loyola Press

Dr. Jim Mazurkiewicz is having copies made of the St. Stanislaus School Registry (all students who attended from 1929-1962) and has compiled a flash drive for your computer with this information, additional information about the church history and the Polish settling in Chappell Hill. These two items will be available to purchase at the Bazaar with all proceeds going to the church. Thank you Dr. Jim for this donation.

If anyone has any photos from St. Stanislaus Catholic School, Dr. Jim would like to have a copy to add to the school ledger he is making available that day. Even if you are not sure who is in the photo, please send him a copy of what you might have, at: jim.mazurkiewicz@ag.tamu.edu

All New & Returning CCE parents:

Please take and fill out a Registration Form for the 2021-22 CCE year from the box at the rear of the church, and return the completed form to the same box.

Condolences to the family of Emily Zientek, who passed away on August 4.

THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE

"There is no surer pledge or dearer sign of this great hope in the new heavens and new earth 'in which righteousness dwells,' than the Eucharist. Every time this mystery is celebrated, 'the work of our redemption is carried on' and we 'break the one bread that provides the medicine of immortality, the antidote for death, and the food that makes us live for ever in Jesus Christ.'"

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1405)
