

This Week’s Message:

“At all times and in every race, anyone who fears God and does what is right has been acceptable to him. He has, however, willed to make men holy and save them, not as individuals without any bond or link between them, but rather to make them into a people who might acknowledge him and serve him in holiness. He therefore chose the Israelite race to be his own people and established a covenant with it. He gradually instructed this people.... All these things, however, happened as a preparation for and figure of that new and perfect covenant which was to be ratified in Christ....the New Covenant in his blood; he called together a race made up of Jews and Gentiles which would be one, not according to the flesh, but in the Spirit.”

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

With his final breaths on the Cross, Jesus entrusts Mary and the Beloved Disciple to one another, and by extension establishes a maternal relationship between Mary and the Church. Jesus’ words are addressed not only to Saint John, but to each one of us. In this moment, the physical mother of Jesus becomes the spiritual mother of the Church and all the faithful. Saint John goes on to take Mary into his home and cares for her as she advances in age, demonstrating our responsibility to continue our care for human life, from conception to natural death. Mary, who taught us how to nurture human life, becomes the recipient of that same honor and care.

The life of the Blessed Mother teaches us to respect each human life in every stage and circumstance. Mary is our model for upholding the sanctity of all human life. O Mary, “Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life.”

APOSTOLIC VISIT OF POPE LEO XIV TO FRANCE (Vatican News by Karol Darmoros).. Leo XIV spoke to the journalists flying with him back to Rome after his visit to France. Lourdes, the meeting with the sick and suffering, and the enthusiasm of 80,000 young people gathered at the Stade de France—these were the experiences Leo XIV highlighted as some of the most important moments of his trip to France. During a press conference on the flight back to Rome, the Pope spoke of signs of hope, the search for faith among the youth, and the restoration of dignity to the sick and the elderly.

Almost miracles. Leo XIV began his conversation with journalists by summarizing the four-day trip that had concluded the previous day. He emphasized that its intense schedule had yielded many special experiences.

"These four days (from 25 to 28 September 2026) were literally filled with blessings. I would say, with almost miracles—especially the time spent in Lourdes," the Pope said. He pointed first and foremost to the meeting with

About 80,000 young people attended the vigil. The Pope spoke of "their enthusiasm, joy, and sense of hope—which they offered, but above all, I believe, which they received and will be able to share with others."

Leo XIV did not attempt to single out one event as the most important, but he emphasized the significance of Lourdes and the meeting with the youth.

"Among the many different things we celebrated and experienced over these four days, I would say these are some of the most important moments—not to the exclusion of others, but these were quite significant," the Pope concluded.

AN EXHORTATION TO BE WISE TENANTS

Reflect and see that the day of death is approaching. With all possible respect, therefore, I beg you not to forget the Lord because of this world’s cares and preoccupations and not to turn away from his commandments, for all those who leave him in oblivion and turn away from his commandments are cursed and will be left in oblivion by him (Ez 33:13).

When the day of death does come, everything they think they have shall be taken from them. The wiser and more powerful they may have been in this world, the greater will be the punishment they will endure in hell. Therefore I strongly advise you...to put aside all care and preoccupation and receive the most holy Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ with fervor in holy remembrance of him. May you foster...honor to the Lord among the people entrusted to you....If you do not do this, know that, on the day of judgment, you must render an account before the Lord your God, Jesus Christ. Let those who keep this writing with them and observe it know that they will be blessed by the Lord God.
