OUR BAZAAR IS ONLY 8 WEEKS AWAY!

For the next several weeks we will be featuring a certain booth and things we need for the Bazaar. Next week if every family would bring one item for the "Outdoor Booth" (fishing, hunting, camping, water hose, bird feeder etc anything pertaining to the Outdoors) and hopefully we can have this booth stocked by Bazaar Day.

We're still in need of monetary donations to help defray expenses of the Bazaar, large Auction Items, cards for Target-the-Card and toys for the Toy Booth. If we all do a little it will make a great impact on the Bazaar as a whole and don't forget to keep selling those Raffle/M meal Tickets. So get on board and do your part to make our 84th Bazaar successful!

All New & Returning CCE parents:

Please take and fill out a Registration Form for the 2021-22 CCE year from the box at the rear of the church, and return the completed form to the same box.

Copies of the 2020 Financial Statement of the parish are available at the rear of the church, for those interested.

Also look at the spiritual and devotional books at the rear of the church, and take them home for your use.

Thoughts for Your Meditation

The Gospel is from St. Mark 6:7-13. We know that Christ the Son of God could have spread his Gospel of peace and love, his message of eternal salvation, to the whole world without human help, if he had wished to do so.

He could, for instance, have written the Gospel in the sky, — over each country in its own language. He could have gone to every part of the earth himself, after his resurrection, and taught his doctrine to all peoples, confirming his words with extraordinary miracles.

Yet he chose the weaker but the more human way of evangelizing men—he sent their own fellowmen to bring them the message. This choice showed his divine love and understanding of weak human nature, much better and much more effectively than the use of any of the supernatural means which he could have employed.

God gave man the gift that we call free will. Man is able to choose between alternatives. God wants man to choose heaven as his eternal home, but he wants him to choose it without compulsion or coercion. He will have volunteers in heaven, not conscripts. We have been granted the dignity of free moral agents who are allowed to accept, or to refuse.

By appointing mere mortal men to bring the news of salvation to all of us, the news of heaven, and the means of getting there, Christ has emphasized this free choice, giving us the chance to exercise our free will and therefore to merit heaven.

God's mercy and love can reach into the darkest corners and produce fruit from the most unlikely and apparently most neglected of orchards.

While we thank God from our hearts today for having been put on the road to heaven, let us remember in our prayers our fellowmen, God's other children, who—through ignorance or blindness or obstinacy—have never seen the road, or have left it, and are trudging along through fields and swamps and hedges.

May God continue to show his mercy and divine understanding toward them!

Dr. Jim Mazurkiewicz is having copies made of the St. Stanislaus School Registry (all students who attended from 1929-1962) and has compiled a flash drive for your computer with this information, additional information about the church history and the Polish settling in Chappell Hill. These two items will be available to purchase at the Bazaar with all proceeds going to the church. Thank you Dr. Jim for this donation.

If anyone has any photos from St. Stanislaus Catholic School, Dr. Jim would like to have a copy to add to the school ledger he is making available that day. Even if you are not sure who is in the photo, please send him a copy of what you might have, at: jim.mazurkiewicz@ag.tamu.edu

THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE

“It is in the Church that Christ fulfills and reveals his own mystery as the purpose of God’s plan: ‘to unite all things in him.’ St. Paul calls the nuptial union of Christ and the Church ‘a great mystery.’ Because she is united to Christ as to her bridegroom, she becomes a mystery in her turn. Contemplating this mystery in her, Paul exclaims: ‘Christ in you, the hope of glory.’”

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 772)
