

This Week's Message:

“At the end of time, the Kingdom of God will come in its fullness. After the universal judgment, the righteous will reign for ever with Christ, glorified in body and soul. The universe itself will be renewed:
‘The Church.... will receive her perfection only in the glory of heaven, when will come the time of the renewal of all things. At that time, together with the human race, the universe itself, which is so closely related to man and which attains its destiny through him, will be perfectly re-established in Christ.’”

Lumen Gentium 48; Acts 3:21; Eph 1:10; Col. 1:20; Pet. 3:10-13

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

With his final breaths on the Cross, Jesus entrusts Mary and the Beloved Disciple to one another, and by extension establishes a maternal relationship between Mary and the Church. Jesus’ words are addressed not only to Saint John, but to each one of us. In this moment, the physical mother of Jesus becomes the spiritual mother of the Church and all the faithful. Saint John goes on to take Mary into his home and cares for her as she advances in age, demonstrating our responsibility to continue our care for human life, from conception to natural death. Mary, who taught us how to nurture human life, becomes the recipient of that same honor and care.

The life of the Blessed Mother teaches us to respect each human life in every stage and circumstance. Mary is our model for upholding the sanctity of all human life. O Mary, “Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life.”

LET US PRAY THE ROSARY. SAINT SISTER FAUSTINA PRAYED THE ROSARY.

Do you pray the Rosary every day? Saint Faustina did. She wrote:... [One time] I saw many demons. One of these tried to vex me; taking the form of a cat, he kept throwing himself onto my bed and on my feet, and he was quite heavy, as if [weighing] a ton.

I kept praying the rosary all the while, and toward dawn these beings vanished, and I was able to get some sleep. (412)

Saint Faustina experienced first hand the power of the Rosary over Satan. In fact, the Blessed Mother often appeared to St. Faustina herself, speaking words of encouragement and asking for prayer and reparation.

One time, the Blessed Mother came to her and said, “My daughter, at God’s command I am to be, in a special and exclusive way your Mother; but I desire that you, too, in a special way, be My child” (1414). Saint Faustina said that when the Blessed Mother came to her, she appeared “inconceivably beautiful” (1414).

Only about 15 years before St. Faustina was receiving these visions from Jesus and Mary, the Blessed Mother appeared to the three shepherd children in Fatima, instructing them to pray the Rosary daily to obtain peace for the world. There are many similarities between what Our Lady told the shepherd children and what she said to St. Faustina. Our Lady told the children, “Pray, pray much, and sacrifice for sinners, for many souls go to hell because there is no one to sacrifice and pray for them.” Saint Faustina filled her Diary with commentary about the necessity of sacrificing for souls.

As a beloved daughter of the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Faustina naturally prayed the Rosary every day. She mentions the Rosary several times in her Diary. Once while she was praying the Rosary, she had a vision of the Blessed Sacrament in a ciborium. During this vision, Jesus told her, “These hosts have been received by souls converted through your prayer and suffering” (709). Another time, St. Faustina’s guardian angel came to her and told her to pray for the dying, so she immediately started saying the Rosary (see 314).

In her Diary, St. Faustina mostly writes about the Rosary in passing. But that’s because praying the Rosary was as integral to her prayer life as breathing — she simply didn’t think to write much about it.

Now, it takes time and effort to commit to praying the Rosary every day. But don’t be afraid to pray it in the car or in segments throughout the day. Once you learn to make praying the Rosary a daily habit, you won’t ever regret dedicating yourself to this prayer. There’s almost no better way to bring God’s grace, mercy, and peace into our world. There will be a second collection at Masses next weekend, for World Mission Sunday.

The Financial Statement for the Bazaar should be in the Bulletin next weekend.

We finally got the last of the invoices in this past week and have to work on the Financial and then meet with the Finance Council for final approval and hope to get that all done next week. We want to get accurate and correct information to you, so please bear with us. We appreciate your patience.

The KJT meeting will be held on Monday October 12 at 6:30 pm, in the Parish Hall.
