This Week's Message:

"This perfect life with the Most Holy Trinity – this communion of life and love with the Trinity, with the Virgin Mary, the angels and all the blessed – is called 'heaven'. Heaven is the ultimate end and fulfillment of the deepest human longings, the state of supreme, definitive happiness."

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1024)

PRAYER OF ST. NICHOLAS VON FLUE

My Lord and my God, take all things from me that keep me from Thee!
My Lord and my God, grant all things to me that lead me to Thee!
My Lord and my God, take me from myself and give all of me to Thee!

Commonly called Brother Klaus, St. Nicholas von Flue is the patron saint of Switzerland. He was born in 1417, and lived as a well-to-do farmer and respected judge, with his wife and his ten children. Then God called upon him to abandon everything. After much struggle and prayer, and with the consent of his wife Dorothy, he made an extraordinary sacrifice, living in the deep gorge of the near Ranft as a hermit, until his death. His only nourishment was our Lord in the Eucharist. This fact made him famous all over Europe, and a great number of pilgrims came to ask for his advice and prayer. His chief care was to preserve the peace; he saved his country from civil war. He died on March 21, 1487 and is buried at Sachseln. In 1947 he was canonized by Pope Pius XII. His feast is celebrated on September 25th.

The month of November reminds us of the Communion of Saints.

We express our belief in this doctrine each time we say the Apostles' Creed. The Communion of Saints refers to the relationship that binds the Church Militant (the Pilgrim Church on earth), the Church Suffering (the souls in purgatory) and the Church Triumphant (the souls in heaven). The Communion of Saints teaches us that these three aspects of the Catholic Church remain bonded both in life and in death.

In particular, the month of November reminds us not to forget our beloved dead. In the Early Church, a chair was left vacant at table, along with a plate and tableware, to remind the family to pray for the repose of the souls of their deceased loved ones. Today, the month of November reminds us to visit the graves of our beloved dead, to gain indulgences to be applied to their souls, to have Masses offered for the repose of their souls and also to pray for the souls in purgatory. 'Celebrations of life', or the decision to have no funeral services, or to forgo the Mass of Christian Burial frequently can be a denial of the reality of purgatory, which exists for the souls of those who die in a state of venial sin or who have not fully atoned for the temporal punishment due to sins already forgiven. Too often, then, the deceased are looked upon as saints already in heaven because they have had no need of purification. Some people also desist from praying for the dead and having Masses offered for them because they believe that the word purgatory is not found in the Bible. Indeed, the word is not found in the Bible. The words Incarnation, Christmas, Easter and Trinity are also not found in the Bible. Nevertheless, true believers accept all those doctrines, regardless of the distinct names given to them. Accordingly, there are bona fide references in the Bible that imply a state of purification that we call purgatory. Therefore, during this month of November, let us remember our beloved dead with appropriate religious remembrances. "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen."
