BAZAAR NEWS:

Kelvin Mikolajchak, is our General Chairperson for "Bazaar 2023. Our Bazaar this year will be September 3rd. Once again, we are most grateful to Johnny and Carolyn Kopycinski of Chappell Hill Bakery and Deli for donating the meal for our big fundraiser. Mr. Ed Smith of Chappell Hill Bank has graciously agreed to again sponsor the printing of our Raffle Tickets. We are greatly appreciative of these two large donations. As you all know the two largest money makers of the Bazaar are the Raffle Tickets and Grand Auction. Therefore, we are asking for donations for these two areas, we do not need your item (s) or cash donation immediately just your commitment. Donations should be of at least $100 in value. If you would like to donate on the Raffle Ticket, contact Virginia (979/836-0080) and for the Auction, contact Crystal (979/251-4048). Let's all work together and see if we can top our profit of $100K from 2022.

FROM THE PREACHING OF FR. VENANTIUS BUESSING, OFM, Cap

The Lord said to Magdalen: "Why are you weeping?" and soon after, on the same day He appears to St. Peter.

My dear people, Magdalen and Peter are the two privileged persons to whom the Victor of Golgotha appears first, to bring them the first joyful and happy Easter message. They had repented of their sins; they had been absolved by Our Savior Himself. They had made their Easter Confession!

Brethren, with Peter and Magdalen we have sinned; but we, too, have repented of our faults in our Easter Confession. Hence, I say to you, in the Name of the Risen Savior: "A very happy and joyous and blessed Easter to you! May the joys and blessings and graces of this holy season be yours in the fullest measure!"

Should there be anyone in our midst who has not as yet complied with this most sacred duty, I would like to ask such a one, in the name of the Savior, to come soon during this holy Easter season to the feet of Our Lord and ask His pardon and absolution in an humble Easter Confession.

Christ died that we may live. Without Him there is no living, and He alone can give to our soul that happiness and peace which the world cannot give, that true peace which comes to us from God.

Our little human heart is so small that I can cover it with the palm of my hand. And yet, it is so big that the whole world cannot fill it, and only God can satisfy it, because it was made for God. "My heart is restless until it finds rest in Thee, O God," we all must say with St. Augustine.

On this first day of Easter Christ gave His Church His own sin forgiving power: "Whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them." This was the Savior's Easter gift to a redeemed world.

Christians, children of God, make your Easter duty, and then rejoice with us and feel happy, because the Savior of Calvary and the Victor of Golgotha has made our Easter happy... One more time: Happy Easter to you! Wesolego Alleluja! Feliz Pascua!

Fr. Thaddeus will continue to present the Faith Formation series on Divine Mercy, now on Wednesday evenings after the 6:00 pm Mass. If you missed the first sessions that were offered during Lent, you can come to hear the remaining sessions.

All are invited to see The Traveling History Display
(History of the Austin Diocese, on the occasion of its 75th Anniversary)

Come join us for fellowship, coffee and refreshments !

This Week's Message:

“The Paschal mystery has two aspects: by his death, Christ liberates us from sin; by his Resurrection, he opens for us the way to a new life. This new life is above all justification that reinstates us in God’s grace, ‘so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.’ Justification consists in both victory over the death caused by sin and a new participation in grace. It brings about filial adoption so that men become Christ’s brethren, as Jesus himself called his disciples after his Resurrection: ‘Go and tell my brethren.’ We are brethren not by nature, but by the gift of grace, because that adoptive filiation gains us a real share in the life of the only Son, which was fully revealed in his Resurrection.”
