First Saturday Devotion

This rich devotion to Our Lady's Immaculate Heart of saying the rosary daily and making acts of reparation begins with an angel appearing to three children Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta in 1916 in the Cova de Iria in Fatima, Portugal to teach them to pray. They were taught the following two prayers in preparation for the Blessed Mother's apparitions, and were to pray them in addition to their custom of praying the rosary each day.

“My God, I believe, I adore, I hope, and I love Thee. I ask pardon for all those who do not believe in Thee, do not adore Thee, do not hope in Thee, do not love Thee.”

“Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, I adore Thee profoundly and I offer Thee the Most Precious Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of the same Son Jesus Christ, present in the Tabernacles of the world, in reparation for all the sacrileges, outrages, and indifferences by which He Himself is offended. And by the infinite merits of His Most Sacred Heart and through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg the conversion of poor sinners.”

The Blessed Mother first appeared to the children on May 13, 1917 and told them that she was sent by God with a message for the world, which at the time was suffering the effects of the first world war. She promised that Heaven would grant peace to the world if her requests for prayer, adoration and consecration were heard and obeyed.

She explained that war is a punishment for sin and warned that God would further punish the world by means of war, hunger and persecution of the church, of the Holy Father and of Catholics.

The Blessed Mother repeatedly emphasized the necessity of praying the rosary daily, wearing the Brown Scapular of Mount Carmel and of performing acts of reparation and sacrifice.

During Her second apparition the Blessed Mother taught the children what we now know as the Fatima prayer said between the mysteries of the rosary:

“O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of Hell, lead all souls to Heaven, especially those most in need.”

She also showed them a vision of her Immaculate Heart with thorns piercing It, offended by the sins of mankind and desiring reparation.

In December 1925, Our Lady and the Child Jesus appeared to Sister Lucia, who had become a Dorothean sister living in a convent at Pontevedra. She showed her heart to Sister Lucia encircled with thorns, and asked for the institution of a First Saturday devotion. in reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This reparation was to include the following elements, performed with the intention of reparation for blasphemies against the Immaculate Heart, for at least five consecutive months:

- Confession (shortly before or after the First Saturday – so long as the person receives Holy Communion in a state of grace);
- Holy Communion received on the First Saturday of each month;
- The Holy Rosary, five decades recited sometime during the day;
- Meditating for 15 minutes on one or more Mysteries of the Rosary.

This Week's Message:

"The beatitude we are promised confronts us with decisive moral choices. It invites us to purify our hearts of bad instincts and to seek the love of God above all else. It teaches us that true happiness is not found in riches or wellbeing, in human fame or power, or in any human achievement— however beneficial it may be—such as science, technology, and art, or indeed in any creature, but in God alone, the source of every good and of all love:

"All bow down before wealth. Wealth is that to which the multitude of men pay an instinctive homage. They measure happiness by wealth; and by wealth they measure respectability....It is a homage resulting from a profound faith....that with wealth we may do all things. Wealth is one idol of the day and notoriety is a second....Notoriety, or the making of a noise in the world—it may be called 'newspaper fame' - has come to be considered a great good in itself, and a ground of veneration."

John Henry Cardinal Newman—Saintliness the Standard of Christian Principle
