— Nor was Mary less than was befitting the Mother of Christ. When the apostles fled, she stood before the Cross, and with reverent gaze beheld her Son's wounds, for she waited not for her Child's death, but the world's salvation.— St. Ambrose: Letters, 63 (396 AD)

POPE EMERITUS BENEDICT XVI (95 YEARS OLD IS VERY ILL
VATICAN SAID ON WEDNESDAY

“...I can only pray to the Lord and ask all the angels and saints, and you, dear brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. Quite soon, I shall find myself before the final Judge of my life. Even though, as I look back on my long life, I can have great reason for fear and trembling, I am nonetheless of good cheer, for I trust firmly that the Lord is not only the just judge, but also the friend and brother who himself has already suffered for my shortcomings, and is thus also my advocate, my “Paraclete”. In light of the hour of judgement, the grace of being a Christian becomes all the more clear to me. It grants me knowledge, and indeed friendship, with the judge of my life, and thus allows me to pass confidently through the dark door of death. In this regard, I am constantly reminded of what John tells us at the beginning of the Apocalypse: he sees the Son of Man in all his grandeur and falls at his feet as though dead. Yet He, placing his right hand on him, says to him: “Do not be afraid! It is I...” (cf. Rev 1:12-17). Dear friends, with these sentiments I bless you all.” Benedict XVI

Each evening, as the last person leaves the church, the Blessed Sacrament will be reposed.

This Week's Message:

“Called in the Gospels ‘the mother of Jesus,’ Mary is acclaimed by Elizabeth, at the prompting of the Spirit and even before the birth of her son, as ‘the mother of my Lord.’ In fact, the One whom she conceived as man by the Holy Spirit, who truly became her Son according to the flesh, was none other than the Father’s eternal son, the second person of the Holy Trinity. Hence the Church confesses that Mary is truly ‘Mother of God’ (Theokotos).”
(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 495)
