FEBRUARY 11TH IS A FEAST DAY OF OUR LADY OF LOURDES.

Saint Bernadette Soubirous was born on January 7, 1844, the eldest of nine children. When Bernadette was fourteen years old, she went with her sister and a friend on February 11, 1858 to gather some firewood to heat their home, she heard the sound of a rushing wind but saw only a wild rose moving. Then, from within the grotto, she saw a dazzling light and the figure of a young lady in white with yellow roses on her feet. The other two girls saw nothing. Bernadette asked her sister not to tell anyone, but her sister later told their mother.

Next time Bernadette brought with her a bottle of holy water. When she arrived at the cave with her companions, the three girls knelt to pray the rosary. Before finishing the first decade, the young woman in white appeared. Bernadette sprinkled holy water in her direction, telling her that if she were from God she should stay; if not, she should leave. The woman smiled and stayed for the rest of the rosary and then departed.

Bernadette recounts the following about the next two weeks of visions: "I came back for a fortnight....During this fortnight, She told me three secrets which She forbade me to tell anyone. I have been faithful until now."

As word spread, the numbers in attendance grew to 30, 100, 350, 800, 1000, 1,500, culminating with almost 10,000. During the fortnight, the local police got involved and threatened Bernadette and her family. However, Bernadette persevered. The lady asked people to pray for sinners and to do penance. During the ninth vision, the Lady asked Bernadette to drink from a spring of water in the cave. She found only a small muddy puddle so she drank from it. This left mud on her face, which caused many of the onlookers to ridicule her, to the embarrassment of her family. Over the next two days, the little mud puddle turned into a flowing spring of clear water. Many began to believe when a woman's paralyzed arm was cured after bathing it in the new spring of water.

Upon the conclusion of the fourteen days, life returned to normal for the next three weeks. However, on March 25, the Feast of the Annunciation, Bernadette was drawn once again to the grotto. This time, she repeatedly asked the Lady's name. The lady responded, "I am the Immaculate Conception."....Since that time, the waters in Lourdes have continued to flow. Millions of people now visit Lourdes every year, making it one of the most frequented pilgrimage sites in the world. The sick flock to this holy grotto to bathe in or drink the miraculous water, seeking a cure for their ailments.

Bernadette entered religious life. On one occasion she said, "The Virgin used me as a broom to remove the dust. When the work is done, the broom is put behind the door again." This "broom" was canonized in 1933. The grotto of Lourdes, however, was much bigger than Bernadette. It was Our Lady's gift to the people. It was her proclamation that She was the Immaculate Conception and Her formal acceptance of the title here on earth. On the picture above: The Sick come to Our Lady of Lourdes.

This Week's Message:

“Christ, sent by the Father, is the source of the Church’s whole apostolate’; thus the fruitfulness of apostolate for ordained ministers as well as for lay people clearly depends on their vital union with Christ. In keeping with their vocations, the demands of the times and the various gifts of the Holy Spirit, the apostolate assumes the most varied forms. But charity, drawn from the Eucharist above all, is always ‘as it were, the soul of the whole apostolate.’”
