WE'RE 3 WEEKS AWAY FROM OUR BAZAAR!!

Auction Items are still needed, and time is growing short! [Some items we already have: quilts, bedspreads & shams, grill, 2 rockers, 2 cakes, park bench, blower]

So more are needed: the bigger the item the better: consider a weedeater, chainsaw, etc. If you don't know what to get, make a monetary donation for an auction item and we'll buy it for you.

Keep selling those raffle tickets so we can meet our goal of selling 3000 books and a profit for the Parish of $30K.

If you need more tickets, contact Virginia 836-0080; for meal tickets, contact Michael at 277-5010. There will be a basket in the back of the church to drop off your sold tickets and money. Be sure your name is on the packet.

Deadline for turning in meal tickets is August 20 (so we can have an approx. head-count for the caterer).

Also on Sunday, August 21, 2022, there will be a drawing after the 8:00 am Mass for a $75 Gift Certificate to Chappell Hill Bakery & Deli. You will get one ticket in the drawing for every 10 books of raffle tickets you have sold and turned in! Remember, you must turn in your sold tickets by Saturday evening, Aug.20, to be eligible for the drawing!

—So far, Raffle Ticket sales are: $3,670; Meal tickets: $945 —

We are still in need of items for the Toy booth, Outdoor booth and Kid Zone! You can also make cash donations for "as needed", to help defray expenses.

— Your cooperation and assistance are greatly appreciated. Let's make this another successful Homecoming Bazaar for our Parish!

Bishop John W. Yanta 1931-2022

The first bishop of Polish background to be appointed to a Texas diocese, Bishop John Yanta's life had a typical American flavor. Bishop Yanta's roots went back to the Opole area of Silesia, Poland. There was the typical immigrant connection -- his ancestors sold their possessions and purchased sailing-ship tickets to America -- and Texas. His parents, John Andrew Yanta and Mary Magdalen Pollok were married on June 15, 1920, in the parish church at Panna Maria.

Born on Oct. 2, 1931, the fifth of eight children, he grew up on a family farm-ranch in Runge. He attended Runge public schools and religion classes at St. Anthony Church there from first to seventh grades.

The years at Runge public school were followed by two years at Central Catholic High School and 10th grade at Maryhurst Normal Seminary in Kirkwood, Mo., where he studied to be a Marianist priest. He changed to Assumption Seminary in San Antonio in 1946. He was ordained to the priesthood on March 17, 1956, in San Fernando Cathedral by Archbishop Robert E. Lucey. He celebrated his first Mass in St. Anthony's in Runge.

His first assignment was as associate pastor of St. Ann's Parish in San Antonio from 1956-1962. In 1962 he was named director of the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO). While serving in that capacity until 1968, he also served as associate pastor of Our Lady of Grace, Holy Name, and St. Pius X parishes in San Antonio. He was the founder of the San Antonio Neighborhood Youth Organization (SANYO) in 1965 and served as its executive director until 1971, when he was assigned to the archdiocesan Office for the Laity.

In 1970-1971, Bishop Yanta went to Poland to study the country's history and culture and to improve his knowledge of the Polish language. "I have great respect for the variety of ethnic cultures within the archdiocese. It was my exposure to the Hispanic and Black cultures that made me realize that I knew almost nothing of my own Polish heritage," he said.

Bishop Yanta is a charter member of the Polish American Priests Association (PAPA) and became its first national president in 1991. Highly active in several Polish-American organizations, he was the coordinator of Pope John Paul II's visit with Panna Maria parishioners and Texas Polonia in 1987 at Assumption Seminary.

In 1973, then Msgr. Yanta was named pastor of Sacred Heart Parish in San Antonio. In addition, he was named editor-in-chief of Today's Catholic, a position he held until 1983. In 1981 he became archdiocesan director of Communications.

With an expressed sense of profound humility, Msgr. Yanta accepted a new appointment as auxiliary bishop of the archdiocese at a press conference in the chancery on October 27, 1994. He was consecrated auxiliary bishop in a ceremony held Dec. 30, 1994, in Panna Maria.

The bishop had a reputation as an organizer and a "doer." An action that brought the bishop into public view was his jail sentence in 1993 for blocking the entrance to the New Women's Clinic abortion center on San Pedro Avenue. It was the way he chose to observe the 20th anniversary of the Roe vs. Wade Supreme Court ruling.

On Jan. 21, 1997, Bishop Yanta was appointed prelate for the Diocese of Amarillo, and became the bishop there on March 17, 1997.

He retired on January 3, 2008, and moved back to San Antonio. Upon his retirement, Bishop Yanta remained active, and was focused intensely on the development of the Polish Heritage Center at Panna Maria, whose founding he has spearheaded. The Center celebrated its grand opening October 23-24, 2021.

He was honored on June 13, 2019 during a presidential welcome reception at Our Lady of Czestochowa Church in Houston with the Commander's Cross of the Order of Merit of the Republic of Poland. The honor was presented to Bishop Yanta by President Andrzej Duda and First Lady Agata Kornhauser-Duda.

On March 18 of this year, Bishop Yanta was honored at the Hope for the Future 13th Annual Khaki and Plaid Gala for championing Catholic education for a lifetime and a recent significant financial gift to Catholic education. The following week, on March 22, Bishop Yanta was again recognized at the 20th Annual Catholic Television of San Antonio Leadership Luncheon for his invaluable role in the founding of the station 40 years ago.

Bishop John W. Yanta, a prelate proud of his Polish heritage who traced his lineage to the first settlers of Panna Maria, died in his residence in San Antonio on August 6 -- the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord -- after years of dealing with numerous serious health ailments with a resolute and prayerful demeanor, as he continued to lead and guide work on a number of endeavors close to his heart.

Liturgical celebrations for Bishop Yanta are as scheduled: see the following link:

This Week's Message:

"Fortitude is the moral virtue that ensures firmness in difficulties and constancy in the pursuit of the good. It strengthens the resolve to resist temptations and to overcome obstacles in the moral life. The virtue of fortitude enables one to conquer fear, even fear of death, and to face trials and persecutions. It disposes one even to renounce and sacrifice his life in defense of a just cause. 'The Lord is my strength and my song.' 'In the world you have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.'" [John 16:33]

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1808)
