Worshipping the Idol of Wealth...

“Nothing is more fallacious than wealth. Today it is for thee, tomorrow it is against thee. It arms the eyes of the envious everywhere. It is a hostile comrade, a domestic enemy.” - St. John Chrysostom: Homilies
“For men invariably worship what they like best.” - St. Jerome: Letters, 22,10.

Our Bazaar is fast approaching!!

And closer than you think! (August 31, 2025)

We are in need of Auction items for the Grand Auction, if you do not know what to purchase consider making a donation for an item and we will purchase it for you.

We need cards for "Target the Card" in denominations of $10 and up, as well as cash donations to help defray expenses of the Bazaar, and for Kitchen items (Wieners, buns, plates, nachos, cheese etc).

We also need volunteers to work and help in any way to make our Parish Fundraiser another successful event. Remember the monies raised helps to operate the Parish and we all benefit.

For the Cake Booth: needed are baked items that do not require refrigeration. Not just cakes, but anything creative such as pies, cookies, brownies, kolaches or homemade candies would be great!

For the Country Store Booth: Camping chairs, fishing gear, sports related items, non-perishable groceries, paper goods, hunting items, small cooking appliances or utensils, home décor, etc.

For the Soda/Ring-Toss: Need 2-liter soft drinks.

For the Kid Zone: small items for game prizes.

Also, sell those raffle/meal tickets! The raffle tickets are a large portion of the profit of our Bazaar. If you need more meal tickets, check with the parish office. We have $14K in prizes and they should be easy to sell. So far, as of last week Raffle Tickets sold: $1,750. Meal tickets sold: $435.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation!

The Work List for the Bazaar will be out soon. Be sure to pick up a copy to see where you are to work. If you're not on the work list but would like to volunteer, contact Doris at 979-277-5598.

Any way you can help will be greatly appreciated. Contact Kelvin (General Chairperson) at 979-277-2906, and Crystal Mikolajchak at 979-251-4048 (Grand Auction).

AUGUST 6TH THE FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD.

The Transfiguration of Jesus is one of the key events in Jesus’ life. He took three apostles – Peter, James, and John – up to a high mountain to pray. As they were praying, His appearance changed, and His clothes became “dazzling white.” At that point, Moses and Elijah appeared and spoke to the Lord about His upcoming death. A cloud overshadowed the group, and God the Father’s voice came from the cloud saying, “This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to Him!”

According to St. Thomas Aquinas, the Transfiguration occurred because the divine glory which was Christ’s, was allowed for a moment to shine through His human body. He did this so that they could taste for a short time the contemplation of eternal joy, in view of the persecutions they would suffer.

Transfiguration refers to Our Lord’s change in appearance from the passable bodily form in which He would suffer and die, to the glorified form in which He would rise from the dead. The Latin root “trans-” means “across” or “through.” The root

“figura” means “form” or “shape.”

There were also Moses and Elijah that appeared at the Transfiguration. Their presence supports what Jesus said: “Think not that I have come to abolish the law and the prophets; I have come not to abolish them but to fulfill them.” (Matthew 5:17). The Law and the Prophets are the two main aspects of the Old Covenant, and Moses represents the Law, while Elijah represents the Prophets.

What does teach us? And the lesson from the Transfiguration for us is just as Saint Paul II said “We, pilgrims on earth, are granted to rejoice in the company of the transfigured Lord when we immerse ourselves in the things of above through prayer and the celebration of the divine mysteries. But, like the disciples, we too must descend from Tabor into daily life where human events challenge our faith. On the mountain we saw; on the paths of life, we are asked tirelessly to proclaim the Gospel which illuminates the steps of believers.”

This Week's Message:

"The beatitude we are promised confronts us with decisive moral choices. It invites us to purify our hearts of bad instincts and to seek the love of God above all else. It teaches us that true happiness is not found in riches or well-being, in human fame or power, or in any human achievement—however beneficial it may be—such as science, technology, and art, or indeed in any creature, but in God alone, the source of every good and of all love."

"All bow down before wealth. Wealth is that to which the multitude of men pay an instinctive homage. The measure happiness by wealth; and by wealth they measure respectability.... It is a homage resulting from a profound faith... that with wealth he may do all things. Wealth is one idol of the day and notoriety is a second.... Notoriety, or the making of a noise in the world—it may be called "newspaper fame" - has come to be considered a great good in itself, and a ground of veneration."

St. John Henry Cardinal Newman, "Saintliness the Standard of Christian Principle" in Discourses to Mixed Congregations

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1723)
