ABOUT OUR BAZAAR LAST SUNDAY... !

It appears from all indications that our Bazaar this past week-end was VERY successful thanks to each of you and your support! THANK YOU especially to those who donated, who sold or bought raffle tickets, and who worked the Bazaar!

A financial statement will be out as soon as all the invoices have come in.
We had one of the largest crowds we have had in a long time.

There will be a "Brunch" (Kolaches/Coffe/Juice) after the 8:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday September 28th in the Parish Hall.

Everyone is encouraged to attend, especially Booth Captains who participated in the Bazaar to give us your input as to how we can make it better next year. Even if you did not participate, please join us for fellowship and to give us your ideas. There is always room for improvement and new ideas are most welcome. Please come and join us and you may even win a door prize!

Healing Mission

With Paul Rymniak
Monday & Tuesday—September 22nd-23rd
at St.Stanislaus Catholic Church, Chappell Hill
Both evenings will begin at 7:00 pm.
The Sacrament of Confession will be available during the Mission.

Healing is NOT just for the physically impaired. Mental and emotional stresses and strains can take a heavier toll on our lives, even more than the worst of diseases. So if you or your family are in need of Healing in these areas, come and experience the Lord, and what he can do for you.

BLESSED CARLO ACUTIS AND BLESSED PIER GIORGIO FRASSATI

will be canonized as saints by Pope Leo XIV this Sunday, September 7, 2025, during a Mass in St. Peter’s Square in Rome. [By Fr. Mark Baron, MIC ("Father Joseph, MIC)]

Blessed Carlo Acutis (1991-2006; feast day: Oct. 12) was an extraordinary young man. He died at 15, but in that short lifetime, he went a lot farther in his generous love of God and neighbor than most of us do in a longer lifetime.

See, it’s not actually that complicated to become holy. It all comes down to love of God and neighbor, or living like Jesus did.

It can be hard — don’t get me wrong. I’m not saying it was easy to do what Carlo Acutis did. After all, how many teenagers, confronted by a leukemia diagnosis, promptly and peacefully offer up their sufferings for the pope and the Church? That takes some serious courage and fortitude.

I find it so hopeful that Carlo Acutis managed that level of preparation for suffering and death in the modern world. He was a fairly normal teenager much of the time, loving his video games, loving life, even channeling Spider-Man as a tween. But he also was willing to share his faith with his friends and neighbors. He loved the poor and the Holy Souls in Purgatory, and shared generously from his allowance to buy things to help the homeless. He did what he could with what he had where he was.

Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati (1901-1925; feast day: July 4) was my kind of guy. He loved his sports and the great outdoors, especially mountain climbing. That’s why you’ll see people quoting a slogan of his, “Verso l’alto!” which means “To the heights!” He meant it both in terms of he really wanted to go mountain climbing, and he meant it in terms of the spiritual life.

God summons us to what’s hard, to what’s challenging, to go to where we will encounter Him. We are called to get closer to God throughout our lives, even if that means sacrifice, even if that means spiritual exercises and blood, sweat, and tears. But we are also called to do this joyfully.

Pier Giorgio radiated joy. He seemed a carefree young man, a normal devout Italian guy of his generation — but when he died, his funeral was packed with the thousands of people he had helped or befriended.

Like Carlo Acutis, he was ordinary and holy, which made him extraordinary. That’s the heart of the Christian vocation, to be salt, light, and yeast in the world, to be temples of the Holy Spirit transforming the world from within. You are meant to give flavor to ordinary life, to bring light into dark places and keep it there, to be yeast in the dough of the created world, bringing in air, bringing in grace. (The casket with the body of Pier Giorgio Frassati was placed in the Cathedral of Sydney during World Youth Days in 2008; Father Thaddeus with the youth from San Antonio were blessed to pray by his relics there in Australia) Two new saints to inspire our Marian Family | Marians of the Immaculate Conception

The flowers on the altar were donated by the Jozwiak Family Reunion for the greater honor and glory of God, and in memory of deceased members of the Jozwiak family.

Parish Office hours this coming week will be:

Congratulations to Kathleen Novak (granddaughter of Gerald & Pat Novak) on her Scholarship Award from KJT Society #142.

This Week's Message:

"The Word became flesh to be our model of holiness: 'Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me.' 'I am the way and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but by me.' On the mountain of the Transfiguration, the Father commands: 'Listen to him!' Jesus is the model for the Beatitudes and the norm of the new law: 'Love one another as I have loved you.' This love implies an effective offering of oneself, after his example."
