LETTER OUR BISHOP SENT TO
CHAPPELL HILL: August 19, 2026

Dear Father Thaddeus:

I was happy to be with you and your parishioners for the celebration of the Eucharist on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the sanctuary and to bless the new catechetical hall.

Thank you for the beautiful watercolor portrait of the church and the meal. It was a joy to visit with the families.

Be assured of my prayers for you, and I ask you to pray for me.

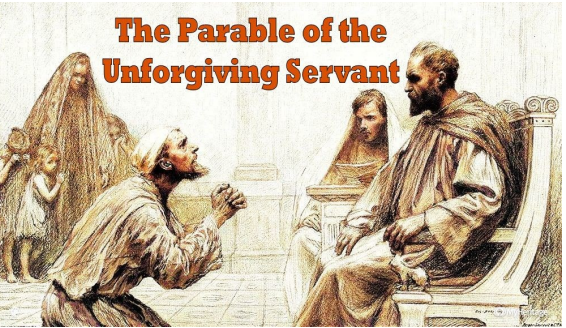

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel E. Garcia
Bishop of Austin

I’ll bet if you were asked at this moment to make up a list of your neighbor’s sins, weaknesses, and faults, without blinking an eyelash you’d have a long list. But if I were to have you tell me something beautiful about your neighbor....the list of faults comes much more quickly. We need to focus on the beautiful qualities that the Father and Son have planted in [our neighbors’] souls. Compassion heals. Compassion makes things grow. It makes things that are desolate bloom.

What are we afraid of? We’re afraid of the demands of compassion. To be compassionate is to forget yourself. To be compassionate is to think more of your neighbor. It is to say to your neighbor, “Look, I know you have weaknesses; I know you have faults....but I too am a sinner. I have done other things that nobody has ever seen or knows about.”...

Compassion frees you. Compassion transforms you into the image of the Father...How divine it is to forgive. How divine not to judge. How divine to rejoice, like the father at the prodigal son.

How divine to say, “Oh, I’m so glad you’re back. I’m so glad you’re repentant.” Look through the eyes of the Father. Look with the heart of Jesus. Look with the power of the Spirit. The Spirit in you can purify you. The Spirit in you can make you love your brother, though you hate his sin. That is compassionate. Lord, make us all compassionate as the Father is compassionate.

“The practice of all the virtues is animated and inspired by charity, which ‘binds everything together in perfect harmony’; it is the form of the virtues; it articulates and orders them among themselves; it is the source and the goal of their Christian practice. Charity upholds and purifieis our human ability to love, and raises it to the supernatural perfection of divine love.”
