WE'RE 2 WEEKS AWAY FROM OUR BAZAAR!!!

Auction Items are still needed, and time is growing short! [Some items we already have: quilts, bedspreads & shams, grill, 2 rockers, 2 cakes, park bench, blower]

So more are needed: the bigger the item the better: consider a weedeater, chainsaw, etc. If you don't know what to get, make a monetary donation for an auction item and we'll buy it for you.

Keep selling those raffle tickets so we can meet our goal of selling 3000 books and a profit for the Parish of $30K.

If you need more tickets, contact Virginia 836-0080; for meal tickets, contact Michael at 277-5010. There will be a basket in the back of the church to drop off your sold tickets and money. Be sure your name is on the packet.

*****

Try to turn in meal tickets by August 20 (so we can have an approx. head-count for the caterer).

*****

Also on Sunday, August 21, 2022, there will be a drawing after the 8:00 am Mass for a $75 Gift Certificate to Chappell Hill Bakery & Deli. You will get one ticket in the drawing for every 10 books of raffle tickets you have sold and turned in! Remember, you must turn in your sold tickets by Saturday evening, Aug.20, to be eligible for the drawing!

—So far, Raffle Ticket sales are: $7,580; Meal tickets: $1,965 —

We are still in need of items for the Outdoor booth! You can also make cash donations for "as needed", to help defray expenses.

— Your cooperation and assistance are greatly appreciated. Let's make this another successful Homecoming Bazaar for our Parish!

This Wednesday, August 24th is the Feast of Saint Bartholomew

St. Bartholomew (also known as Nathaniel), a doctor in Jewish law, was a dear friend of St. Philip the Apostle. Because Bartholomew was a man "in whom there was no guile," his mind was open to the truth. He went willingly with Philip to see Christ and recognized the Savior immediately as the Son of God. After having received the gifts of the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost, Bartholomew evangelized Asia Minor, northwestern India, and Greater Armenia. In the latter country, while preaching to idolaters, he was arrested and condemned to death.

St. Bartholomew

In St. John's Gospel, Bartholomew is known by the name Nathaniel (the liturgy does not always seem aware of this identity). He hailed from Cana in Galilee, was one of the first disciples called by the Lord. On that initial meeting Jesus uttered the glorious compliment: "Behold, an Israelite indeed in whom there is no guile!" After the Resurrection he was favored by becoming one of the few apostles who witnessed the appearance of the risen Savior on the sea of Galilee (John 21:2). Following the Ascension he is said to have preached in Greater Armenia and to have been martyred there. While still alive, his skin was torn from his body. The Armenians honor him as the apostle of their nation. Concerning the fate of his relics, the Martyrology says: "His holy body was first taken to the island of Lipari (north of Sicily), then to Benevento, and finally to Rome on an island in the Tiber where it is honored by the faithful with pious devotion."

The Church of Armenia has a national tradition that St. Jude Thaddeus and St. Bartholomew visited the Armenians early in the first century and introduced Christianity among the worshippers of the god Ahura Mazda. The new faith spread throughout the land, and in 302 A.D., St. Gregory the Illuminator baptized the king of Armenia, Dertad the Great, along with many of his followers. Since Dertad was probably the first ruler to embrace Christianity for his nation, the Armenians proudly claim they were the first Christian State.

This Week's Message:

“Christ enables us to live in him all that he himself lived, and he lives it in us. ‘By his Incarnation, he, the Son of God, has in a certain way united himself with each man.’ We are called only to become one with him, for he enables us as the members of his Body to share in what he lived for us in his flesh as our model:

‘We must continue to accomplish in ourselves the stages of Jesus’ life and his mysteries and often to beg him to perfect and realize them in us and in his whole Church... For it is the plan of the Son of God to make us and the whole Church partake in his mysteries and to extend them to and continue them in us and in his whole Church. This is his plan for fulfilling his mysteries in us.’” St. John Eudes, LH, Week 33, Friday Or.
