The Feast of Saint Jude Thaddeus and Saint Simon, the Apostles is on October 28

But did you know that St. Jude Thaddeus was related to Jesus and had much resemblance? His father was Cleophas. The mother's name was Mary. She was a near relative of the Blessed Virgin. After her death, the holy remains of Mary Cleophas were glorified by great miracles. Saint Jude was brought up by his parents as a pious and innocent youth.

When our Savior began His public life, Jude Thaddeus abandoned everything to accompany Him. How great must have been the surprise and joy of our holy apostle when he witnessed the first miracle of his Lord and Master at the marriage feast of Cana! From the time when Jude was chosen an Apostle, he labored with indefatigable zeal, particularly for the conversion of the Gentiles.

Cure of the King of Edessa. In most countries of Europe, Saint Jude is represented as wearing a miniature of our Lord on his breast. The following is the tradition attached thereto: The fame of our Lord's miracles having reached Abagaro, King of Edessa, who was afflicted with leprosy, sent a messenger begging Jesus to come and cure him. Receiving an answer that our Lord could not gratify him then, the king sent an artist to Jerusalem for the purpose of at least obtaining our Lord's portrait. But the poor artist, blinded by the splendor and brightness emanating from our Savior's Face, was unable to draw a single line. Jesus, moved by compassion, and wishing to console Abagaro, held a cloth to His Face, and impressed the image of His sacred Countenance thereon. Then He handed it to Saint Jude Thaddeus, who after our Lord's Ascension proceeded to Edessa. A supernatural splendor shone about Saint Jude when he was presented to King Abagaro. Perceiving this, the sovereign knelt, saying, "Art thou the disciple of whom Jesus spoke: 'I will send you one of My disciples who will cure your malady, and give life to you and your subjects'?" Thaddeus replied, "Thou hadst faith in the Lord Jesus; therefore He sent me." "I believe in Him." said the king. Saint Jude then placed his hands on Abagaro, who was instantly cured of his infirmity. Many citizens were also healed, and on being instructed, the king, his court and almost the entire kingdom were converted to Jesus Christ.

According to the tradition, Saint Jude Thaddeus suffered martyrdom about 65 AD in a place known today as Beirut, in the Roman province of Syria, together with the apostle Simon the Zealot. After his death, Saint Jude's body was brought from Beirut to Rome and placed in a crypt in St. Peter's Basilica (front left) which is visited by many devotees.

St. Jude Thaddeus is venerated by those with a problem that has an impossible solution. This belief is because St. Bridget of Sweden, patroness of Europe, noted that Jesus told her that when she needed 'complex' favors, to go to the patron remembered on the 28th day of October namely to St. Thaddeus. The name "Jude" means "giver of joy," while "Thaddeus" means "generous" and "kind." To Father Thaddeus and his friends October 28th is like a national holiday.

This Week's Message:

"The first movement of the prayer of petition is asking forgiveness, like the tax collector in the parable: 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' It is a prerequisite for righteous and pure prayer. A trusting humility brings us back into the light of communion between the Father and his Son Jesus Christ and with one another, so that 'we receive from him whatever we ask.' Asking forgiveness is the prerequisite for both the Eucharistic liturgy and personal prayer." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2631)
