AUGUST 4TH IS A FEAST DAY OF SAINT JOHN VIANNEY PATRON OF PARISH PRIESTS.

Jean Baptiste Marie Vianney was born the fourth of six children on May 8, 1786, in Lyon, France. He was a French Catholic priest venerated in the Catholic Church as Saint John Vianney and the patron saint of parish priests. He is popularly known as the “Curé d’Ars,” parish priest of Ars, France.

His early life concurred with the dreadful and anti-Catholic French Revolution. Growing up in a devout community, he attended clandestine Masses in private residences and on farms presided by priests in hiding. His deep and profound faith was probably developed by growing up seeing the daring and courageous dedication of his community.

He is attributed for his saintly life, mortification, persevering ministry in the sacrament of confession, and ardent devotion to both the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Philomena. On August 4, 1859, at 73, he went home to the Almighty Creator. He became one of those known as “incorrupt saints,” a phenomenon by which the saints’ mortal bodies do not ever decompose.

What miracles were attributed to St. John Vianney? St. John Vianney tried to deflect the recognition for the miracles the Lord worked through him. In his faithful life and beyond, he performed marvelous miracles by the grace of God. As a confessor, he was blessed to have witnessed a lot of souls being saved by God’s grace. He directed people towards the confessional, where the Almighty God works his greatest of miracles every day.

There was once a girl who hadn’t been able to speak in two years. He asked her to go pray at St. Philomena’s altar. The girl went and was cured at the end of her prayer.

A paralyzed woman on one side of her body came to the lowly saint. The latter instructed her to talk to St. Philomena, which the woman followed at once. Almost instantly, the woman received miraculous healing.

A mother brought her child with a massive tumor under his eye. The humble priest suggested taking her child to St. Philomena’s altar. Before going, the mother asked for his blessing. As the Curé raised his arm, the mother took his hand to touch her child’s tumor. The tumor immediately and miraculously disappeared.

St. John Vianney is a model, disciple, and priest. He took the same path as the Savior, spreading the good news and working miracles. In the time lent to him, it was his destiny to live and love. <https://www.angelusmusic.com/the-wisdom-of-the-saints/the-miracles-in-st-john-vianneys-life/>

“Spiritual progress tends toward ever more intimate union with Christ. This union is called ‘mystical’ because it participates in the mystery of Christ through the sacraments—‘the holy mysteries’- and, in him, in the mystery of the Holy Trinity. God calls us all to this intimate union with him, even if the special graces or extraordinary signs of this mystical life are granted only to some for the sake of manifesting the gratuitous gift given to all.”

The faith of Christ believed by the saints and handed down to us has been marked by the seal of God shown in works no creature can perform. These are the miracles by which Christ has confirmed holy apostolic doctrine. St. Thomas Aquinas – Exposition of the Apostles’ Creed (13th cent).

I cannot understand people having historical difficulties about miracles. For, once you grant that miracles can happen, all the historical evidence at our disposal bids us believe that sometimes they do. Msgr. Ronald A. Knox – The Belief of Catholics (20th cent).
