WE'RE 1 WEEK AWAY FROM OUR BAZAAR!!!

Auction Items are still needed, and time is growing short! [Some items we already have: quilts, bedspreads & shams, grill, 2 rockers, 2 cakes, park bench, swing, blower, fountain]

So more are needed: the bigger the item the better: consider a weedeater, chainsaw, etc. If you don't know what to get, make a monetary donation for an auction item and we'll buy it for you.

Reminder: If you are participating in the contest (prizes) for selling the most Raffle Ticket Books, they must be turned in NO LATER than after the 6:00 PM Mass on Saturday, Sept.3rd, to be eligible. Tickets turned in on Sunday will not count, for the contest.

On Bazaar day there will be no one accepting Raffle Tickets after the Sunday Mass. They must be brought to the parish hall and turned in at the Raffle Ticket Booth. PLEASE DO NOT DROP THEM IN THE COLLECTION BASKET AT MASS!

If you need more tickets, contact Virginia 836-0080; for meal tickets, contact Michael at 277-5010. There will be a basket in the back of the church to drop off your sold tickets and money.

Be sure your name is on the packet.

—So far, Raffle Ticket sales are: $12,792; Meal tickets: $3,840 —

Please turn in any meal tickets, sold or unsold, as soon as possible (so we can have an approx. head-count for the caterer).

We are still in need of items for the Outdoor booth! You can also make cash donations for "as needed", to help defray expenses.

— Your cooperation and assistance are greatly appreciated. Let's make this another successful Homecoming Bazaar for our Parish!

AUGUST 26 WAS A FEAST DAY OF OUR LADY OF CZESTOCHOWA BLACK (CZARNA) MADONNA IN POLAND.

Tradition has it, that at the urging of a group of holy women in Jerusalem, St. Luke, the Evangelist, painted the Black Madonna from life after Jesus' death, upon a cypress board the young Christ had fashioned into a tabletop for the Holy Family's use.

The community of Christian women kept the image in Jerusalem until 328, when St. Helena took it to Constantinople along with other relics. In the 1200s, it came into the possession of Lev I of Galicia (Eastern Poland), whose wife was the granddaughter of the Byzantine emperor. Lev installed it in his castle in Belz, Ukraine, around 1270. Some hundred years later, Vladislaus II of Opole took possession of the castle. Not long afterward, when Tatars attacked, Vladislaus hung the icon on the surrounding wall. A fog arose, in which the attackers retreated, but not before one of their arrows scarred the Virgin's neck. In 1382 Vladislaus founded a monastery on Jasna Góra (Bright Mountain) near Częstochowa in southern Poland, populating it with Monks of Saint Paul from Hungary.

On August 26, 1382, Vladislaus had the sacred painting installed in the Church of the Assumption he built there. In 1430, Hussite raiders left two sword marks on the Virgin's cheek. The raiders tried to make off with a wagonload of valuables, including the painting, but when their horses refused to move, they threw down the icon and slashed it.

During her long stay at Jasna Góra, the Black Madonna has endeared herself to the Polish people through countless miracles, both private and public. In 1655, She was credited with raising the Swedish siege of the monastery. On August 15, 1920, She was said to have appeared above the Polish defenders at the Battle of the Vistula near Warsaw, heralding or abetting the Russian defeat.

The Catholic Church has honored the Black Madonna with four canonical coronations, in 1717, 1910, 1966, and 2005. As Pope, John Paul II visited the shrine four times; he and his successors each personally presented the icon with a golden rose. In 1931, Pope Pius XI established August 26 as the feast day of Our Lady of Częstochowa in commemoration of the icon's move to Jasna Góra on this date in 1382. Tens of thousands of Poles converge on the shrine, many on foot, to honor their beloved Madonna with songs, masses, and processions. Major pilgrimages also take place on May 3, feast of Our Lady, Queen of Poland, and August 15, feast of the Assumption. An Orthodox commemoration of Our Lady of Częstochowa on March 6 (March 19 Gregorian) recalls the miraculous appearance of a similar image in Moscow on that date in 1770.

This Week's Message:

"Envy represents a form of sadness and therefore a refusal of charity; the baptized person should struggle against it by exercising good will. Envy often comes from pride; the baptized person should train himself to love in humility:

'Would you like to see God glorified by you? Then rejoice in your brother's progress and you will immediately give glory to God. Because his servant could conquer envy by rejoicing in the merits of others, God will be praised.'" St. John Chrysostom, Hom. In Rom. 71,5.
