FEBRUARY 2ND THE FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD.

The feast was first observed in the Eastern Church as "The Encounter." In the sixth century, it began to be observed in the West: in Rome with a more penitential character and in Gaul (today's France) with solemn blessings and processions of candles, popularly known as "Candlemas." Until 1969, the ancient feast of the Presentation of Our Lord was known as the Feast of the Purification of Our Lady, The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord definitely concludes Christmas Time forty days after the Lord's birth, and with the offerings of the Virgin Mother and the prophecy of Simeon, the events now point toward Easter.

It is good to keep in mind that the revised Book of Blessing provides for the blessing of women both before and after birth, this latter only in cases where the mother could not participate at the baptism of her child.

It is a highly desirable thing for mothers and married couples to ask for these blessings which should be given in accord with the Church's prayer: in a communion of faith and charity in prayer so that pregnancy can be brought to term without difficulty (blessing before birth), and to give thanks to God for the gift of a child (blessing after birth).

FEBRUARY 3RD THE FEAST DAY OF SAINT BLAISE. Each year, on or near February 3, the Feast of St. Blaise, parishes offer the Blessing of the Throats.

Saint Blaise was a bishop who was martyred in Armenia in 316. According to legend, he was an excellent physician in his hometown of Sebastea and studied many of the great philosophers. When the Bishop of Sebastea died, Blaise was chosen to replace him, and many are said to have come to him seeking spiritual and physical healing.

Although the Edict of Milan granting freedom of worship in the Roman Empire had been issued in 313 by co-ruling Emperors Constantine I and Licinius, persecution of Christians was still widespread. According to tradition, while on his way to prison, a mother came to him because her young son had a fish bone lodged in his throat. Upon Saint Blaise's prayers, the child was able to cough up the bone. That is why he is considered the patron saint for relief from throat ailments. Out of gratitude, the woman brought him two wax candles so he would have light in his prison cell. Despite being beaten and tortured by Agricolaus, the governor of Cappadocia, Saint Blaise refused to deny his Christian faith. He was beheaded as a result.

This Week's Message:

"The Beatitudes depict the countenance of Jesus Christ and portray his charity. They express the vocation of the faithful associated with the glory of his Passion and Resurrection; they shed light on the actions and attitudes characteristic of the Christian life; they are the paradoxical promises that sustain hope in the midst of tribulations; they proclaim the blessings and rewards already secured, however dimly, for Christ's disciples; they have begun in the lives of the Virgin Mary and all the saints."

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1717)
