Our Bazaar is fast approaching!! (August 31, 2025)

We are in need of Auction items for the Grand Auction, if you do not know what to purchase consider making a donation for an item and we will purchase it for you. If you know what you’re going to donate, contact Crystal to let her know, in order for your item to be on the numbered “List of auction items”.

We need cards for "Target the Card" in denominations of $10 and up,

For the Cake Booth: needed are baked items that do not require refrigeration. Not just cakes, but anything creative such as pies, cookies, brownies, kolaches or homemade candies would be great!

For the Country Store Booth: Camping chairs, fishing gear, sports related items, non-perishable groceries, paper goods, hunting items, small cooking appliances or utensils, home décor, etc.

For the Soda/Ring-Toss: Need 2-liter soft drinks.

For the Kid Zone: small items for game prizes.

Cash donations: to help defray expenses of the Bazaar, and for Kitchen items (Wieners, buns, plates, nachos, cheese etc).

Also, sell those raffle/meal tickets! The raffle tickets are a large portion of the profit of our Bazaar. If you need more meal tickets, check with the parish office. We have $14K in prizes and they should be easy to sell.

Deadline for turning in Meal Tickets is August 20, so we can get a good head-count for the caterer.

AUGUST 9TH IS A FEAST DAY OF SAINT TERESA BENEDICTA OF THE CROSS, also known as Edith Stein. She is a Catholic saint who was born Jewish but later converted to Christianity and became a Carmelite nun. She was murdered by the Nazis in the Auschwitz concentration camp on August 9, 1942. She is also a patron saint of Europe.

Edith Stein was born in 1891 in Breslau, then under Germany (now Wrocław, Poland), into a Jewish family. She was a brilliant student and became a renowned philosopher, studying under Edmund Husserl. She initially rejected religion but later, through her intellectual and spiritual journey, was drawn to Christianity, eventually being baptized in 1922.

After her conversion, she continued her academic work, but felt a strong call to religious life.

Along the way she studied with Christian intellectuals. She was particularly influenced by the faith of the widow of a friend and professor, Adolf Reinach, who was killed in World War I. At age 30, in 1921, she picked up the autobiography of Saint Teresa of Avila in a friend’s library and couldn’t put it down. “This is the truth!” she told herself upon completing the book. After buying a prayer book and a catechism she approached a parish priest, and asked for baptism, only to be met with hesitation. The parish priest could not believe that she would know the faith without catechism classes.

Stein then requested the priest test her, and she was baptized on January 1, 1922. Soon after her Baptism, she wanted to enter religious life and she entered the Carmelite order in 1934, taking the name Teresa Benedicta of the Cross.

As a Jew and a convert to Catholic faith, she faced persecution under the Nazi regime. In 1942, on August 9th she and her sister Rosa ,were killed in the gas chambers of Auschwitz

Pope John Paul II canonized Edith Stein in 1998. In 1999, she was declared one of the six co-patron saints of Europe. Her feast day is celebrated on August 9th.

Edith Stein is remembered as a philosopher, a woman of faith, and a martyr. Her life and death are seen as a powerful symbol of the dangers of religious and racial persecution.

The writings of Edith Stein fill 17 volumes, many of which have been translated into English. A woman of integrity, she followed the truth wherever it led her. After becoming a Catholic, Edith continued to honor her mother’s Jewish faith. Sister Josephine Koepfel, O.C.D., translator of several of Edith’s books, sums up this saint with the phrase, “Learn to live at God’s hands.”

This Week's Message:

"In Jesus 'the Kingdom of God is at hand.' He calls his hearers to conversion and faith, but also to watchfulness. In prayer the disciple keeps watch, attentive to Him Who Comes, in memory of his first coming in the lowliness of the flesh, and in the hope of his second coming in glory. In communion with their Master, the disciples' prayer is a battle; only by keeping watch in prayer can one avoid falling into temptation."
