CONFIRMATION IS A SACRAMENT OF CHRISTIAN INICIATION WHICH INCLUDES LAYING OF HANDS AND ANOINTING WITH THE OIL OF CHRISM.

Baptism, the Eucharist, and the sacrament of confirmation together constitute the “sacraments of Christian initiation,” whose unity must be safeguarded. It must be explained to the faithful that the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace. For “by the Sacrament of Confirmation, (the baptized) are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1285).

Laying on of hands

“From that time on the Apostles, in fulfillment of Christ’s will, imparted to the newly baptized by the laying on of hands the gift of the Spirit that completes the grace of baptism. The Bishop extends his hands over the confirmandi, saying this prayer: “All-powerful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, by water and the Holy Spirit you freed your sons and daughters from sin and gave them new life. Send your Holy Spirit upon them to be their Helper and Guide. Give them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence. Fill them with the spirit of wonder and awe in your presence. Through Christ our Lord.”

Anointing with the Oil of Chrism

Afterward, each candidate, with their confirmation sponsor, approaches the Bishop, who makes the sign of the cross on the person’s forehead with the chrism oil, while saying: “Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.” There also is an exchange in which the Bishop says, “Peace be with you.” The person responds: “And with your spirit.”

The sacred chrism (sacrum chrisma) that is used for Confirmation is a sacramental, a blessed substance. It is one of three types of holy oil, along with the oil of the catechumens (oleum catechumenorum) and the oil of the sick (oleum infirmorum) that are blessed by the Bishop at the annual Chrism Mass and distributed to the parishes throughout the diocese. Mark your calendar: Our young Parishioners will receive Sacrament of Confirmation in Brenham at St. Mary’s Church on Sunday, April 21, 2024 during the Holy Mass at 2:30 PM.

And he said to them, “Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

You are witnesses of these things.” Luke 24:46-48

This Week's Message:

“He who believes in Christ becomes a son of God. This filial adoption transforms him by giving him the ability to follow the example of Christ. It makes him capable of acting rightly and doing good. In union with his Savior, the disciple attains the perfection of charity which is holiness. Having matured in grace, the moral life blossoms into eternal life in the glory of heaven.”

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1709)
