THE MONTH OF JULY IS DEDICATED TO THE PRECIOUS BLOOD OF JESUS.

The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

In the oldest document, outside of Sacred Scripture, from the first century of the Christian era – to be exact, from Pope St. Clement

I, dated about 96 A.D. says Pope Clement: "Let us fix our gaze on the Blood of Christ and realize how truly precious It is, seeing that it was poured out for our salvation and brought the grace of conversion to the whole world."

To understand the meaning of the Precious Blood we must get some comprehension of the gravity of sin, of the awfulness of offending God, because it required the Blood of the Son of God to forgive that sin. We are living in an age in which to sin has become fashionable.

This veneration of the Precious Blood, which is the first element in our devotion to the Precious Blood means that we have a deep sensitivity to the awfulness of sin. Sin must be terrible. It must be awful. It must be the most dreadful thing in the universe. Why? Because it cost the living God in human form the shedding of His Blood.

Now about SAINT GERTRUDE THE GREAT... St. Gertrude the Great is invoked often, for prayers for the poor souls in purgatory. She had a deep empathy for those souls in purgatory, and would ask God at each Holy Mass to have mercy on them. God would reply to St. Gertrude that He would use whatever was offered to Him for the faithful departed, according to His inclination to show pardon & mercy.

St. Gertrude was a Benedictine nun and mystic writer who lived in the 13th century. She had the gift of miracles and prophecy. Jesus revealed to her His infinite love, and asked her to spread it, with love, for the suffering and for sinners. According to tradition, our Lord promised her that 1000 souls would be released from Purgatory each time the following prayer is said devoutly:

Eternal Father, I offer You the Most Precious Blood of Your Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the Universal Church, those in my own home, and within my family. Amen.

This Week’s Message:

“Without the help of grace, men would not know how ‘to discern the often narrow path between the cowardice which gives in to evil, and the violence which under the illusion of fighting evil only makes it worse.’ This is the path of charity, that is, of the love of God and of neighbor. Charity is the greatest social commandment. It respects others and their rights. It requires the practice of justice, and it alone makes us capable of it. Charity inspires a life of self-giving: ‘Whoever seeks to gain his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will preserve it.’”

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1889)

Interpretations of today’s Gospel parable tend to focus on the Samaritan, whose example of generous service we are to emulate. But we can also see ourselves in the first place as the one lying beaten and half-dead. Only when we have been loved back to life by the One “in whom all the fullness was pleased to dwell” and who “makes peace by the blood of his cross” are we able to “go and do likewise.” The Lord’s commands are not “mysterious and remote,” for when God’s mercy is “already in our mouths and in our hearts” we are equipped to show it to others. “Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.”
